

[Updated July 11, 2017]

A 2-year postdoctoral scientist position based on Qingdao China is available from now.

Host scientist: Prof. Shang CHEN, Research Center for Marine Ecology, First Institute of Oceanography, State Oceanic Administration(SOA), China.

Responsibilities: The position will be involved in two 4-year MOST-funded projects on valuation of marine ecosystem services and ecological compensation policy.

Workplace: First Institute of Oceanography, SOA, 6 Xianxialing Road, Laoshan District, Qingdao, Shandong, China.

Qingdao is the best attraction coastal city for visitors and scientists and residences. It is one of world-class marine science center. It is between Beijing and Shanghai, from Beijing just one-hour flight and 4.5-hour train.

Salary and social benefits are according to China government's rule. May be extended to a tenure position (Shi-ye-bian-zhi).

Qualifications: Doctoral degree with environmental economics or law background. The experiences with ecosystem services are plus.

For more information, please visit:

<http://www.fio.org.cn/article/2017/06/2017061517241511522.htm>

Contacting with Prof. Shang CHEN

Phone:+86-532-6671 7029,

Email: schen@fio.org.cn